

Fashion Show

Organizers - Khadi Emporium and ITM Vocational University.

The 'Fashion Show' was jointly organized by Khadi Emporium and ITM Vocational University, Vadodara on 8th of October 2017 at Mahatma Gandhi Nagar Gruh, to commemorate Gandhi Jayanti and develop awareness of Khadi among small children and the young generation of today. The theme of the fashion show was 'Khadi for Nation and Khadi for Fashion'. The lighting of the lamp was done by Shri Bharat Dangar- The Mayor of Vadodara in the presence of Shri Ranjeet M Chauhan, the President and Founder of Khadi Emporium in Vadodara and other dignitaries of the ITM University.

The students (age group of 5 to 8 years) and parents of Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan's, V.M. Public School, Vadodara participated in the ramp walk, wearing outfits purely made from khadi. The outfits were designed by the designer Ms. Preeti Parikh of RK Gallery and the fabric was sponsored by 'Gram Vikas Sangh'.

The teachers incharge were Ms. Beena Jajal and Ms. Madhumita Roy Chaudhary from the primary section. The energetic performance put up by the students and the parents was highly appreciated by the audience.

The promotional partners were Radio Mirchi 93.5 and GTPL that was livestreaming the show and Divya Bhaskar published the event on 9th of October in their local newspaper.
