

	LESSON 1 NETWORKING CONCEPTS
--	---	--

I) Answer the Following:

1) What will be a network set up in the school lab called as?

2) Cable Television is an example of which type of network?

3) Intranet in a large multinational company is an example of which type of network?

4) Which technology is used to interconnect two or more computers to share data and resources?

5) What do you call the computer that allocates and manages the resources for a network?

6) Which type of network is linked by satellite signals?

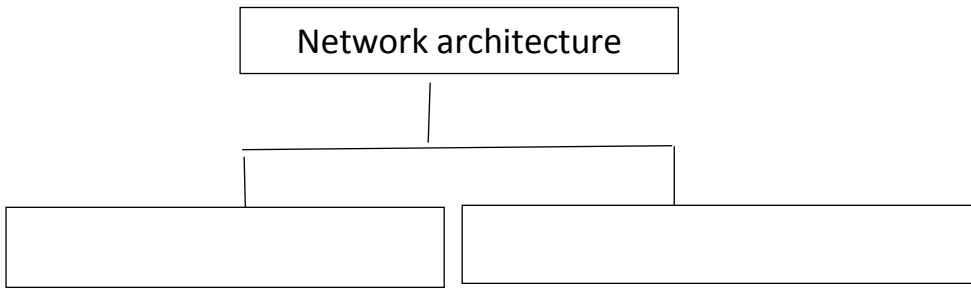

7) Which type of network is restricted to a limited geographical area?

8) Which network covers greater distance and operates nationwide?

9) Which card is used to physically attach a computer to a network, so that it can participate in network communication?

10) What do we call the computers which are connected to the server

II) Fill in the boxes below . Draw the diagrams for each .

DIAGRAMS
----------	--

III) Define the term Network Security. What are the different levels of network security?
